4. 2011-2012 City of La Pine Budget

a. Open Public Hearing

Mayor Mulenex opened the Hearing at 6:04 pm.

b. Staff Report or Summary

City Manager Allen stated there had been no changes to the proposed budget since the Budget Committee had met in May. He said the committee had kept the property taxes at the $1.80 rate per thousand. City Manager Allen said they estimated the property tax income at about 12% less because of the downturn in the housing market. He said franchise fees have gone up and will be almost as much as the property tax income. City Manager Allen said the budget expense totals are up because of the cost of the new City Hall. He also said the committee budgeted for three full time positions, City Manager, City Recorder/Finance and Administrative Assistant. City Manager Allen said they broke up some of the funds to have a better accounting for each of the funds.
