Motion passed unanimously.

City Attorney Green stated that there was a conflict of interest as he also represented Mr. Allen in business and personal matters. He said he was only representing the City.

City Attorney Green said that City Manager Hasson is requested to keep in communication with the City Council regarding any actions that may be taken during the remaining week of employment for Mr. Hasson. City Manager Hasson acknowledged the request and also said he had many records in his office that could be helpful to the City.

Mayor Mullenex asked that the City Manager focus on the budget. City Manager Hasson said he is in the process of finalizing the budget message.

Mayor Mullenex also asked the City Manager to have his office cleaned out of personal effects so that the Interim City Manager could move in on April 19th.

City Attorney Green discussed a meeting with the City Manager and Mayor Mullenex on April 18th.

5. Employee Resignation

City Manager Hasson discussed the rescission of the resignation by City Recorder Lori Martin. City Attorney Green asked the City Manager if he had accepted the rescission. City Manager Hasson said that he had accepted it.
